SANYO Commercial Solutions

SANYO Commercial Solutions announces the official launch of Food Solutions division

Wood Dale, IL, May 8, 2008—SANYO Commercial Solutions, a division of SANYO North America Corporation is proud to announce the official launch of the Food Solutions division. SANYO Food Solutions was created to provide energy efficient, maintenance-friendly and versatile showcases for the display and refrigeration needs of grocery stores and supermarkets around the world.

Product lines include the CPW – Dairy & Deli Merchandiser Case, FPW – Fresh Meat Merchandiser and TVQ– Frozen Food and Ice Cream Wide Island Merchandiser and are aimed to fulfill the self-service and convenience needs of supermarkets, grocers, mass merchants, warehouse clubs, convenience stores and drug stores across the globe.

SANYO has a rich history in the consumer refrigeration industry, with the first production dating back to 1957. Today, they offer a wide range of preservation products from consumer appliances to biomedical storage. New technologies for Food Solutions include SANYO's proprietary cornerstone evaporator, detachable honeycombs, and patented secondary air curtain which allow for more stable temperature control and longer shelf life, while lowering energy consumption. All are aimed at preserving freshness for both the supplier and the consumer.
